Young takes crown; Mannat is India's best

Gurugram: Four days after turning 42, Liz Young celebrated it by finally winning the Hero Women's Indian Open on her ninth visit to India. Young showed great mental strength and played one of the steadiest rounds when it mattered the most.

With just one birdie and one bogey, which came after a trip into the water on the 18th, Young carded 72 after 74-73-67 on the first three days to finish at 2-under total at the demanding DLF Golf and Country Club. Four players, Singapore's Shannon Tan, France's Agathe Sauzon, Kiwi Momoka Kobori and Belgium's Manon De Roey tied for second at 1-under.

For India, the standout performance came via the talented amateur Mannat Brar, who closed the week with her best round of the week at 2-under 70 despite an early double bogey. She finished just outside the Top-10 at Tied-11th and improved each day with cards of 76-75-71-70 for a 4-over total.

CUP OF JOY: Liz Young

"The last two days were a mix for me," said Mannat. "I wasn't at my best with the irons, but my short game made up for it. Today and yesterday, though, I really started hitting my irons well. I've had a strong amateur career so far, being ranked as India's top player for quite a while. This event was a big highlight and I'm genuinely proud and grateful."

Pranavi Urs (72) and Hitaashee Bakshi were T-15th and the best Indian professionals in a week where nine Indians made the cut. Among other Indian, Tvesa Malik was T26 on 9 over 291 and Ridhima Dilawari shared 31st place with Vani Kapoor at 10 over 292. Diksha Dagar (12-over) was T-38th as Ananya Garg (14-over) was T-46th and amateur Janneya Dasannjee (20-over) was T-59.

England's Liz Young keeps her cool to win Women's Indian Open golf

GURUGRAM: England's Liz Young overcame a challenging field and a daunting course to win the 16th edition of the $400,000 Hero Women's Indian Open by one shot at the DLF Golf and Country Club here on Sunday.

The 42-year-old from Southampton, in her 15th year as a pro, logged only her second Ladies European Tour (LET) win after some late drama, winning with a 2-under par 286 total to become the second player from England, after Laura Davies in 2010, to win the event.

Young showed remarkable progress, going from T17 and T12 at the halfway mark before rising to solo third on Saturday to stay one shot behind leaders Manon De Roey of Belgium and England's Alice Hewson going into the final round. It was a battle of nerves with De Roey. A birdie on the 15th helped Young share the lead and then go ahead when the Belgian bogeyed the 17th.

It was far from over though. On the par-5 18th, her third shot found the water. Under pressure, she hit a fine wedge from the drop zone and then holed the putt for a bogey to seal victory.

In with a chance to force a playoff, De Roey could not get up and down as her overhit chip landed on the edge of the bunker. Needing a par putt to take it to the playoff, she could only bogey the hole, finishing in a four-way tie for second.

Singapore's Shannon Tan, France's Agathe Sauzon and New Zealand Momoka Kobori, besides De Roey, all finished one-under for the tournament.

Only five players finished with a sub-par aggregate. Young's two-under is the highest winning total since 2007 - Taiwan's Yani Tseng won at one-under that year.

"Making pars is as important as birdies on such a course, which is what I tried to do over the past two days," Young, who shot an even-par final round 72, said. It was her 5-under effort on Saturday (8 birdies, 3 bogeys) that brought into contention for a second title, after her first win

"I don't think I made bogeys on bad shots. It's that kind of a course," she said.

Among Indians, amateur Mannat Brar (4-over par) was the best finisher at T11 with Pranavi Urs and Hitaashee Bakshi (6-over) T15. Diksha Dagar (12-over) paid the price for a third round 80, finishing T38.

Among the 27 Indian pros and amateurs, nine made the cut. By comparison, among the 32 Indians in last year's field, 10 made the cut and Diksha Dagar (3), Avani Prasanth (T5) and Gaurika Bishnoi (T8) finished in the top 10.

In 2022, 30 Indians participated and 15 made it to the weekend. Of them, Amandeep Drall (T2), Aditi Ashok (4), Bishnoi (T6), and Vani Kapoor (T8) were in the top 10.

"On this course, you play for par. If the birdies happen, it is great. You have to be prepared for anything. It was physically and mentally challenging.

"I did a good job this week. I am looking forward to being with my daughter who has her eighth birthday next week," said Liz, who was emotional, thanking her husband for being a rock of support.

Shannon Tan of Singapore, Agathe Sauzon of France, Momoka Kobori of New Zealand and Manon De Roey of Belgium were one-under 287, and collected $21,380 each.

Mannat Brar was the best amateur as she shot a 2-under 70 for the day, for an overall 4-over 292.

Interestingly, the overnight joint leader, Alice Hewson of England, went 7-over par this day, and was joint 11th with Mannat.

Young claims second tour title with Indian Open win

England's Liz Young won the Women's Indian Open by one shot to claim her second Ladies European Tour title.

The 42-year-old trailed compatriot Alice Hewson and Belgium's Manon de Roey at the DLF Golf and Country Club in Haryana before carding a final-round 72 to finish two under par overall on Sunday.

De Roey went round in 74 to finish one shot behind Young and tie for second with Singapore's Shannon Tan, New Zealand's Momoka Kobori and France's Agathe Sauzon.

Hewson, meanwhile, finished 11th after a disappointing 79.

Young turned the tide with an excellent birdie on the 15th hole to overturn her deficit and gain the lead from De Roey, who could only manage a bogey at 17.

The Englishwoman, who last won the Swiss Ladies Open in 2022, found water at the 18th before recovering to make a bogey, which De Roey could not improve on.

"I'm in shock... disbelief," said Young, who climbed to 12th in the Ladies European Tour's Order of Merit.

"It's my second win, but it's still as important as any other win. They don't happen very often as a professional golfer.

Moms don't win much in professional golf, but Liz Young, 42, has now done it twice England's Liz Young held on tight at the Hero Women's Indian Open to win her second career Ladies European Tour title. The 42-year-old mom pulled out a one-shot victory over a foursome of players including good friend Manon De Roey.

Leading by one stroke going into the closing par-5 at DLF Golf & Country Club, Young's third shot found the water from the rough. As De Roey struggled from short of the green, Young managed to wedge it close from the drop zone at 100 yards to salvage bogey and claim the title.

Young won her first LET title at the VP Swiss Ladies Open after 14 years on tour at age 39, one month shy of her 40th birthday. She radiated joy while holding the trophy – a wooden cow. It was her 200th start on the LET.

Now, she's a two-time champion on her home circuit. Daughter Isabelle will no doubt be thrilled.

"It was my birthday this week and it's my daughter's birthday next week. So it's a good birthday celebration," said Young. "She did want another animal to match the cow [from Switzerland] on the mantelpiece, so I don't know if that's going to happen! But it's another trophy, so we can get rid of the horse which was a replacement on there."

With the victory, Young moves up to 12th on the LET's Order of Merit.

England's Liz Young claimed her second Ladies European Tour title after edging past Manon De Roey at the Hero Women's Indian Open.

Heading into Sunday, Young was trailing De Roey and fellow Briton Alice Hewson by one shot before she carded an even-par round of 72 to claim a one-shot victory at the DLF Golf & Country Club in Delhi.

Hewson struggled in the final round, carding a seven-over 79 to finish tied for 11th with a triple-bogey on the par-five 18th hole summing up her day.

De Roey carded a two-over 74 to share second place with Singapore's Shannon Tan (69), France's Agathe Sauzon (69) and New Zealand's Momoka Kobori (70), all of whom performed well on the final day to race up the leaderboard.

Young's only birdie of the day came at the par-five 15th, which took her level with De Roey, who then handed the Englishwoman the advantage with a bogey at the 17th.

A play-off looked likely when Young's third shot from the rough at the 18th found the water, but De Roey was unable to get up and down from short of the green and Young managed to salvage a bogey to match the Belgian thanks to a fantastic wedge shot from the drop zone.

Four days after turning 42, Liz Young celebrated it by finally winning the Hero Women's Indian Open on her ninth visit to India. Young showed great mental strength and played one of the steadiest rounds when it mattered the most.

With just one birdie and one bogey, which came after a trip into the water on the 18th, Young carded 72 after 74-73-67 on the first three days to finish at 2-under total at the demanding DLF Golf and Country Club. It was the second lowest winning score since the event joined the Ladies European Tour.

The lowest winning score is even par by Denmark's Emily Kristen Pedersen in 2015. Four players, Singapore's Shannon Tan, France's Agathe Sauzon, Kiwi Momoka Kobori and Belgium's Manon De Roey tied for second at 1-under.

For India, the standout performance came via the talented amateur Mannat Brar, who closed the week with her best round of the week at 2-under 70 despite an early double bogey. She finished just outside the Top-10 at Tied-11th and improved each day with cards of 76-75-71-70 for a 4-over total.

"The last two days were a mix for me," said Mannat. "I wasn't at my best with the irons, but my short game made up for it. "I've had a strong amateur career so far, being ranked as India's top player for quite a while. This event was a big highlight and I'm genuinely proud and grateful."

Pranavi Urs (72) and Hitaashee Bakshi were T-15th and the best Indian professionals in a week where nine Indians made the cut.

The 42-year-old from Southampton, in her 15th year as a pro, logged only her second Ladies European Tour (LET) win after some late drama, winning with a 2-under par 286 total to become the second player from England, after Laura Davies in 2010, to win the event.

England's Liz Young won the Women's Indian Open 2024 golf tournament to register her second win on the Ladies European Tour (LET) on Sunday.

Young, who won her maiden LET title at the Swiss Ladies Open two years back, carded two-under 286 over the four rounds at the DLF Golf and Country Club in Gurugram, Haryana to claim her second crown.

The Englishwoman began the final golf round trailing Belgium's Manon De Roey and fellow Brit Alice Hewson by one shot. However, with both Day 3 co-leaders fumbling on the final day, Young edged ahead to win the tournament by one shot.

Hewson endured a disastrous fourth round, carding seven over 79, to finish T11. A triple bogey on the 18th hole proved detrimental.

De Roey did slightly better to card a two-over 74 and shared second place with Singapore's Shannon Tan, France's Agathe Sauzon and Kiwi golfer Momoka Kobori, all of whom did brilliantly on the final day to surge up the leaderboard.

गुरुग्राम, 27 अक्टूबर (आईएनएस)। इंग्लैंड की लिज़ यंग ने रविवार को डीएलएफ गोल्फ एंड कंट्री क्लब में एक स्ट्रोक से चार लाख डॉलर की पुरस्कार राशि वाले हीरो महिला इंडियन ओपन का खिताब जीत लिया और अपना दूसरा लेडीज़ यूरोपियन टूर खिताब जीतकर अपने जन्मदिन का जश्न मनाया। पिछले आठ दौरो में कभी कट से ना चूकने वाली यंग ने इस सिलसिले को नौ तक बढ़ाया, क्योंकि उन्होंने 72 का कार्ड खेला और कुल 2-अंडर 286 का स्कोर बनाकर चार अन्य खिलाड़ियों पर एक शॉट से जीत हासिल की, जो दूसरे स्थान पर रहे।

युवा एमेच्योर मन्नत बरार (76-75-71-70) को शीर्ष एमेच्योर का दोहरा सम्मान मिला और वह 4 ओवर पार 292 पर 11वें स्थान पर संयुक्त रूप से सर्वश्रेष्ठ फिनिशिंग करने वाली भारतीय भी रहीं, जबकि पेशेवर प्रणवी उर्स और हिताशी बख्शी किशोरी से दो स्ट्रोक पीछे 15वें स्थान पर रहीं। उनका स्कोर 6-ओवर 294 था। त्वेसा मलिक 9 ओवर 297 पर संयुक्त 26वें स्थान पर रहीं, जबकि रिधिमा दिलावरी और वाणी कपूर 10 ओवर 298 पर 31वें स्थान पर रहीं।

विजेता यंग का जन्मदिन देरी से होने वाला है, क्योंकि उनकी बेटी का जन्मदिन दो सप्ताह में आ रहा है। साउथम्टन की 42 वर्षीय खिलाड़ी ने 2 अंडर पार 286 का स्कोर बनाकर हीरो महिला इंडियन ओपन की ब्रिटिश विजेताओं की सूची में अपना नाम शामिल कर लिया, जिसमें इंग्लैंड की डेम लॉरा डेविस (2010) और वेल्स की बेकी मॉर्गन (2018) शामिल हैं, जो 2024 की विजेता से अधिक उम्र की दो पिछली चैंपियन भी हैं।
