IN BRIEF

Ojaswini youngest Indian to make cut in LET event

GURUGRAM: Amateur Ojaswini Saraswat on Friday became the youngest Indian ever to make the cut at a Ladies European Tour event at the Women's Indian Open. The 13-year-old Jaipur golfer, who was supposed to gain exposure at the tournament, carded a remarkable 3-under 69 in the second round after opening with a 7-over 79 to make the cut at 4-over and was T-26. She is the youngest Indian and the second youngest player overall to make the cut at a LET event. Switzerland's Chiara Tamburlini led the leaderboard at 6-under, while India's Asian Games gold medallist Pranavi Urs and Argentina's Magdalena Simmermacher were tied-2nd at 4-under.